Praise the work of your children, no matter how trivial the act. It will give them an honest desire to do better next time.

Brother, when you come in from work in the evening, we all know you are tired, but put on your best look and assume a happy mood; do not frown if the floor is not swept, nor supper ready. Engage the little folks just a little while and get them to looking forward to your coming with pleasure. It will help to hap-pify home wonderfully.

A girl who is gentle, brave and spirited; who is unselfish, high-minded and intelligent; who has sweetness and depth of character; who does not think of herself, but works for the happiness of others; who is merry and dainty and wholesome, as a girl should be, will never lack either lovers or friends. She is the light of the home, a good friend to her sisters and brother, and the sunshine of the old folks. God bless her.

The first question a man asks when he sees a girl flirting is whether she is respectable or not; it raises a doubt at once. This being the case no modest girl can afford to indulge the pastime. When the down is brushed from a peach its beauty is so marred that it can never be restored, and when a young girl throws lightly aside that sweet and modest reserve so becoming to a maiden, and which so elevates and enables her to command the respect of all, she loses the great charm and becomes rather cheap and common, to use no rash terms. Flirting may seem to the giddy and thoughtless girl wonderfully amusing and she may get the idea that she is fascinating, but it is a most degrading thing and she should be frowned upon by every young lady who has an ambition to become a worthy and charming young woman.

People who make mistakes are those who quarrel with one another before their children; or who allow the latter to grow up in idleness; those who talk about their troubles before strangers; the father who tells his children to go the way he does not go himself, and the young woman who does not make a confident of her mother.

RULES ADOPTED BY A WISE GIRL.
As she was passing the other afternoon, in getting something out of her pocket, a young woman dropped a slip of paper on the ground. One saw it and picked it up, intending perhaps to return it, but a glance at the cleancut angular hand writing induced him to read it through, for publication, and here it is.

1. I don't let a man smoke when he walks or drives with me. If he knows no better than to do it, I promptly tell him what I think about it.

2. I don't give my photograph to men. I used to occasionally, but I am wise now. I should hate to see my face know that my face might be hanging up in Tom, Dick or Harry's room.

3. I don't let a man take my

AFTER FOUR YEARS OF MISERY

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Baltimore, Md. — "For four years my life was a misery to me. I suffered from irregularities, terrible dragging sensations, extreme nervousness, and that all gone feeling in my stomach. I had given up hope of ever being well when I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Then I felt as though new life had been given me, and I am recommending it to all my friends." — Mrs. W. S. FORD, 1025 Landowne St., Baltimore, Md.

The most successful remedy in this country for the cure of all forms of female complaints is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has stood the test of years and to-day is more widely and successfully used than any other female remedy. It has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means had failed.

If you are suffering from any of these ailments, don't give up hope until you have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege-

If you would like special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. She has guided arm when he walks with me. If he does I tell him I prefer him to give me his arm.

4. I don't let any man "see me home" from church. If he hasn't got gumption enough to take me there and sit through the service with me he can stay away altogether.

5. I don't let any man give me a present, unless it is something of a trifling cost—like fruit or flowers.

6. I don't encourage a man who is not perfectly polite and agreeable to my mother. Whoever calls on me sees a good deal of her.

7. I don't allow a caller to stay later than ten o'clock. If he does not go at that time I tell him politely that this is my custom.

LIKES AND DISLIKES.
Editor Courier: Please give one who admires your Home Circle department a little space to a subject not yet touched upon:

Give me a good, social life, and not a society life; a genial natural person, and not simply an affable one; one sensible, popular maiden, and not a belle, for no man cares for such a wife whose heart has been trampled on like a navyyard.

Give me the woman who works with a vim and never tries to shirk her duty, but whose cry is: "Can I do enough?" and not: "Oh, my!
I have too much to do!" People who dwell so much on self are generally miserable.

Give the woman who is willing to adapt herself to circumstances, and who after an exertion of efforts has such an undying faith, her motto is, "Though he may slay me, yet will I trust Him." The woman who will not be miserable over the past, but will cling to the future with hope, for hope is the blossom of happiness: the woman not afraid to superintend her domestic affairs and then grace her parlor with as much dignity and confidence as if she were the wife of the President of the United States; the woman who would cling to her husband through thick and thin, remembering she took him for better or worse.

with the E. Case Memorial Fund.
The bonded indebtedness of the city there is also about $900.00 of the note held by J. F. & S. L. Dodds Co., which is being reduced annually by their city taxes being applied to same.

For Burns.

Scrape an Irish potato and spread it about one inch thick on a cloth large enough to cover the burn well and let stay on until it begins to get warm and then put on fresh again and repeat so long as it hurts any.

And then wash in cold water and there will be no soreness or will not leave any blister.

If kept on a short time the burning will stop.

Once trying this remedy for a burn one will never forget it, as it is so simple and something that is always at hand in case of a burn, and will be a great help to many a mother, as it has been to me, if once tried.

Stomach Distress.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take one triangle after supper tonight.
There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your Pharmacist, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of Dyspepsia or indigestion.

same after one year in full or making any size partial payment desired ing stopped on partial payments
